

Join the Mount St. Sepulchre Franciscan Monastery of Washington, DC

BABY SUPPLY DONATION DRIVE!

To benefit the newborns at Holy Family Hospital in Bethlehem

The Mount St. Sepulchre Franciscan Monastery of Washington, DC has been helping to collect newborn items, such as onesies, clothes, hats, blankets, etc. to benefit the newborns at Holy Family Hospital in Bethlehem and their families.

Our part of our fraternity's outreach project and to further support the monastery, please bring an item or two, if you can, to our Secular Franciscan Fraternity meeting on Sunday, January 15th.

If you are unable to purchase an item, cash donations are also welcome. Michele Bowe, President of the Board of Directors of Holy Family Hospital in Bethlehem will be our guest speaker during our meeting, and will collect all donations at this time. She will personally deliver our donated items to the newborns and families at Holy Family Hospital in Bethlehem.

About Holy Family Hospital

Holy Family Hospital of Bethlehem is located on the West Bank of Palestine, a mere 1,500 steps from the birthplace of Christ. This Catholic teaching hospital is a state-of-the-art maternity and neonatal crucial care center serving poor and at-risk women, infancies, and children throughout the Holy Land.

The Hospital stands as a beacon of hope for impoverished families in Bethlehem region and nearby United Nations Refugee Camps. The Hospital and its Outreach Clinics provide the highest care to all, regardless of religion, ethnicity, or ability to pay. No one is very turned away. To find out more about Holy Family Hospital in Bethlehem, please visit www.birthplaceofhope.org

Mount St. Sepulchre Fraternity of the
Secular Franciscan Order