◆ Theme: SERVANT LEADERSHIP ◆

Bible Quote of the Month

And Jesus called them to him and said to them, “You know that those who are considered rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. But it shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.” (Mk 10:42-45)

Prayer of the Month

Almighty, most high and supreme God, Father, holy and just, Lord, King of heaven and earth: We trust in you and we ask for your light so that we may choose those who will properly serve our fraternity through their leadership. Help us to select those who are able to animate and guide us by their example, their virtues and prudent decisions so that the gospel of Jesus in the spirit of St. Francis may come alive in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. (Extracted from: Ritual for the Secular Franciscan Order, Celebration of the Fraternity's Chapter of Elections)

ADMONITION OF ST. FRANCIS

21. On the inane and loquacious religious<sup>1</sup>

Blessed (is) the servant, who when he speaks, does not reveal all his own (thoughts) in view of (some) reward, and is not swift to speak (cf. Prov. 29:20), but wisely weighs what he ought to speak and answer. Woe to him religious, who does not retain in his heart (Lk 2:19.51) the good things, which the Lord shows him, and does not show them to others through work, but who in view of (some) gain desires rather to show them to men with words. He himself receives “his wage” (cf. Mt 6:2; 6:16) and (his) hearers bring back little fruit.

The Information Corner

The following words of our Holy father are an excerpt from Believe in Love: Inspiring Words from Pope Francis, a new book published by Franciscan Media.

To do good without counting the cost, even when unasked, even when you gain nothing thereby, even if it is unpleasant. That is what God wants. He, who became small for our sake, asks us to offer something for the least of his brothers and sisters. Who are they? They are those who have nothing to give in return, the needy, the hungry, the stranger, the prisoner, the poor (cf. Mt 25:31–46). We give a gift pleasing to Jesus when we care for a sick person, spend time with a difficult person, help someone for the sake of helping, or forgive someone who has hurt us. These are gifts freely given, and they cannot be lacking in the lives of Christians. Jesus reminds us that if we only love those who love us, we do as the pagans do (cf. Mt 5:46–47). Today let us look at our hands, so often empty of love, and let us try to think of some free gift that we can give without expecting anything in return.

- Belatedly we received a hand-written letter from the family in India whom the Fraternity supports through the Franciscan Family Apostolate program. Here is an extract from the letter. Please keep them in your prayers.

Dear friend,

May the Almighty God bless us abundantly during this Holy Season of Lent. I am happy to inform you that I have received your timely help which you sent for my family. I take this opportunity to thank you very specially for all that you have been doing for my family. We utilized the money for our daily necessities.

My husband Sebastian is taking regular medicine for thyroid. He goes for fishing. Nowadays he is getting nothing from the sea. I am going for prawn peeling work. Our daughters Laya and Lidhiya are continuing their studies. Now Laya is preparing for her entrance examination. Please keep her in your prayers.

We wish you a very happy Easter with many blessings of peace, joy, and prosperity throughout your life. Please extend our Easter greetings to all your dear and near ones.

Yours affectionately, Mary Sebastian

September Reflection

By Larry Bleau, OFS

“If anyone wants to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all.” (Mk 9:35) “The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who have authority over them are called ‘Benefactors.’ But it is not this way with you, but the one who is the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like the servant.” (Lk 22:25-26) “Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet.” (Jn 13:14)

All these are examples of how to serve while leading, and how to lead by serving. Jesus came and showed us a different kind of leadership, one where the needs, wants, desires, hopes and welfare of others come before our own.

As Secular Franciscans this is something we already know, for we have learned it during our period of formation. It is good to remind ourselves of this, however, especially when it comes time to elect a new Council, and to decide how we shall serve one another in our fraternal life.

Common responses include, “I can’t do that,” “I’m not ready,” or “I’m not worthy.” Who, however, is truly able, ready, or worthy? Was Peter ready? The Lord called to him to walk on the water; Peter tried, at first succeeded because he believed, but then sank when he wavered. With God’s help, all things are possible. Did Jesus not send forth his disciples to heal the sick and proclaim the good news? They went out, unprepared for their journey, yet found shelter and nourishment where they went, and performed miracles in His name. They rejoiced, for they believed, and the Lord gave them what was needed. You, too will be given the grace to serve, if you only say “yes.”
